Mr. John J. McDonough
Director, Seminar Series
Harris Trust and Savings Bank
Chicago 90, Illinois

Dear John:

Thank you very much for your letter of 12 June inviting me to be the guest of honor and speaker at your evening seminar to be held at the University of Wisconsin on 17 August.

I sincerely regret that I will be unable to accept your kind invitation. My commitments over the next few months are such that I hesitate to assume another. However, I appreciate your thoughtfulness in asking me to join you on this particular occasion and would like to take this opportunity to wish you a most successful seminar.

With my kindest regards to you and Herbert Prochnow.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Allen:

Once again we hopefully extend to you a most cordial invitation to be our guest of honor and speaker at our evening Seminar at the University of Wisconsin School of Banking on Monday, August 17.

You will recall that your listeners would be 1,100 bank officers from all over the United States who are a keenly interested and enthusiastic audience.

You would be speaking in the air-conditioned Union Theater and the time allotted for your remarks would be thirty-five to forty minutes.

The School would, of course, pay all your expenses to Madison and return and provide you with an honorarium of $500.00.

We would leave the subject of your remarks entirely to you but if you could give us your impressions of some of the complicated problems on the international scene, it would be perfect.

Air travel connections to Madison via Chicago are excellent and you could be away from Washington a minimum of time.

Herbert Prochnow joins me in the earnest hope that this may be the year that you can be with us.

With cordial personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

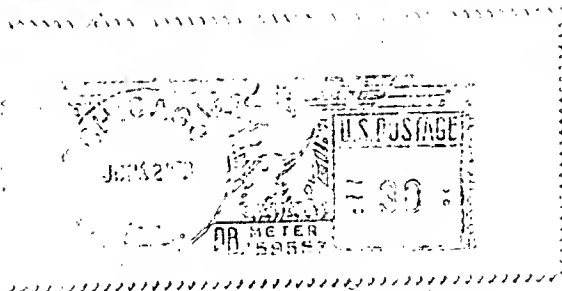

Director, Seminar Series

John J. McDonough
